Showcase description

Mi chiamo Federico, vivo e a Bologna e gestisco una gelateria assieme alla mia famiglia. Vi chiederete cosa centri la mia attuale professione con la creatività , soprattutto col design. A parte il fatto che in ogni lavoro c'è della creatività , nel mio per esempio è importante sapersi rinnovare nei prodotti e nelle pubbliche relazioni coi clienti... Ad ogni modo ho sempre "simpatizzato" con la grafica e il design, portato fin da piccolo alle materie artistiche, ora ho imparato ad esprimere la mia fantasia attraverso un mouse e una tastiera, imparando ad usare software come Photoshop, Maxon Cinema 4D, Studio Tools e Katia...per ultimi Freehand e Dreamweaver che sto imparando autodidatticamente da poco. Diplomato all'Istituto d'Arte di Bologna nella sezione architettura, ho poi conseguito un diploma di Design e Comunicazione presso l'Università del Progetto di Reggio Emilia, titolo di studio non riconosciuto dallo stato ma che mi ha permesso poi di fare parte del rispettabilissimo team dello Studio Bollani di Modena, nell'ambito dell'industrial design. Ora nei ritagli di tempo concessi dal mio umile lavoro, mi dedico a piccole grafiche e al "tentativo di realizzare" siti internet, nella speranza di riprendere la strada professionale che ho perseguito fino a pochi mesi fa.
