Showcase description

I am a 3D graphic and web designer. I develop apps for Apple devices, too. 2003 I have been working as 3D graphic designer in major firms in Bologna, Milan and Padua. In 2008 I enrolled at IUAV University, Venice, in order to master my skills in 3D design through adequate competences in architecture. I am currently completing my BA in Architecture. In the meanwhile, I have been also focusing on indipendent projects - namely in in the field of web and app design. Design, development and management of: · websites · apps for Apple devices · 3D rendering for Design and Architecture
