Showcase description

My art training has always been based on the theory and practice in art, in all its aspects. The Bachelor of Arts (thesis on Yiddish theater, 110 votes and praise) allowed me to deepen the study of outreach, realizing the necessity of a continued commitment. I started my training in the arts since very small, at the studios of local artists, with time I have attended courses in painting and drawing from life. I graduated from the International School of Comics in Florence (3yo). In 2007 I won a scholarship and I attended the Academy of Florence Cappiello to develop the specific knowledge of the illustration and editorial and advertising graphics. In 2010-11 I did a master editorial illustration (grade 29/30) with placement in the study InkLink. I run: illustration, comics, storyboars, visuals, paintings, decorations, etc. ... Joints and have been published by Mondadori. When part-time job at a company in the Marketing and Sale, where I work mainly in the organization of meetings, trips, events. I speak English and French, knowledge of programs Outlook, Word, excel, photoshop, freehand. For years I worked as a decorator 's interior, furniture items, furniture. I have to my credit a considerable number of solo and group exhibitions and have participated in several regional and national competitions.
