Showcase description

I DON?T REMEMBER A SINGLE DAY OF MY LIFE WITHOUT USING A PENCIL. I?m originally from Puglia, the heel of Italy, I grew up with the warmth of the sun and the blue of the sky and sea, but I wanted to explore more about cold and rain, so I moved first to Bologna where I studied ?comics & illustration? at the Academy of Fine Arts, and then to London. I learned to appreciate the freezing wind and the constant rain, and now I can even appreciate more the sun. London definitely taught me how to take the moment! I like walking in the city, listening music. Everything is different with music. I like taking pictures, reading books about someone who is travelling and then travel myself. I like talking with people. if I?m not drawing you can find me dancing swing and listening jazz, somewhere in London. I like everything is a bit weird and unordinary.
