Showcase description

Born in the beautiful Sicily, I dedicate myself to love graphics for 5 years ago, attending the Academy of Fine Arts in Catania, where he graduated in 2011. I currently work as a freelancer and I make tutorials. Also used to study self-taught, I continue to do everything today, attending seminars and online tutorials that help me keep up to date and continues to feed my curiosity. Manic in my work, I love minimalism, photography, sunset, the music, look, even for simple things move me everyday, I try to include in my projects, creating my own personal style.
