Showcase description

Marco was born in Spoleto near Perugia (Italy) in 1983, discovering his passion for music at a young age, beginning to play the guitar and then subsequently the drum? but he would find his real love many years later after a fateful encounter with a young DJ, learning the ways of the mixer using CDs at first, and then his signature, the 12 inch. Over time his musical tastes have transformed and matured, gravitating towards electronic sounds, but always remaining loyal to house, his first love, and playing a variety of genres, without bias, only instinct. His sets capture the dance floor, ranging from easy beats to deep atmosphere. Lately, Marco has begun to attempt the difficult role of producer, but it is still too early in the game..
