Showcase description

Born in Rome, grew up on paper platforms, passionate about sports, music, food and travel. In adolescence I have been a bathering assistant, but above all, I have always been seduced by creative advertising, by all conventional and non-conventional forms, to the point of excitement, to arouse amazement, to impress a memory, a smile, a doubt, a tear , a hatred or any form of feeling. Big fans of editorial charts such as Bob Norda, Falcinelli and Munari. My library knows something about it. Thoughts and inspirations are mine, which travel with the conviction that graphic minimalism and the immediacy of tag lines is the winning weapon for good publicity. Graphic designer, graphic designer, videomaker, social media marketing, development of visual communication projects and web marketing, atl, btl. _ www.simonecamponeschi.it
