Showcase description

I was born in Naples, in ?85. The first signs of my creativity appeared very soon: I used to daub my dolls as a really worthy heir of body painting, I drew on my house wall with the disapproval of my mother and I used to enjoy making caricatures of everyone around, including friends and relatives. My father hope to get me closer to sacred and restoration art so much praised by him, were lost in growth. In the teens, color pencils had become my trousseau for make-up and after art school, the situation went even worse. The world of imagination, the bizarre and the grotesque have always taken precedence over the more figurative. To make it more professional, I attended the Academy of Fine Arts of Brera (Milan), Faculty of New Technologies for Arts ending in 2012 with honors. Disheveled by definition and bungler as profession, I work as a freelance illustrator, I create crazy rag dolls, and I draw the world from my point of view.
