Showcase description

My name is salvatore palazzo, I am an art director and graphic designer who works and lives in Milan. I have an excellent knowledge of adobe programs and I am an illustrator, a skill that on a personal level has led me to exhibit in artistic contexts. I attended the European Institute of Design, exhibited two theses, and developed projects in the field of communication. In recent years I have worked for clients such as Allianz (of which I took care of the artistic and graphic part of the Milan metro, stop three towers), Costa Crociere, Grana Padano (China), Samsung, Huawei and many others.
