Showcase description

For info and contacts: contact@lucianoparisi.it - www.lucianoparisi.it My name is Luciano Parisi, I live in Milan where I was born 38 years ago. I have always been keen on drawing and I began copying comics covers. I got the diploma in Arts Applied to Advertising Graphic at the Art Institute of Milan and later I attended several specific classes, such the one in "Comics and Illustration" and the "Infographic Technician" course, held by the Lombardy Region. I used to work for 6 years at the graphic studio "Publishing & Grapics" in Milan, when I learnt different digital techniques, that I tried to perfect during the following years. My illustration are made in a realistic way both with traditional techniques (pencils, charcoal, indian ink, etc.) and digital ones (Illustrator, Photoshop, Painter). At present I have been trying the way of freelancing.
