Showcase description

Director and Television Producer, graduated in this area at the Professional Institute of Sciences and Arts INCACEA, Chile. Has worked in Australia, France, United States, Palestine and has currently practiced in Italy for several years. Felipe is able to manage communication projects from all perspectives, thanks to his long experience gained in the various meetings with all types of professionals in different working realities. Faces technologies lightly, of which he has profound competence and is the ideal person when looking for versatility and adaptability; a real "assault communicator", ideal for working in agencies, and for shooting and making documentation and documentaries in any situation and remote geographical area of the planet. He has been working in the collaborative and circular economy for 8 years, co-founder of Millepiani Coworking, awarded as the best European coworking in 2017 and 2018, from 2019 best rating in the world.
