Showcase description

I am a professional artist with over thirty years of experience creating works of art, including comics, illustrations, paintings, and tattoos. Since 1992, I have collaborated with national and international clients on numerous editorial and advertising projects. Additionally, I have worked as a tattoo artist in various countries and continents, offering a wide range of styles and designs. Currently, I am primarily focused on creating tattoos and working on several personal projects, but I am always seeking new and exciting creative challenges. In particular, I would be interested in working on projects involving illustration, satirical cartoons, comic books, and caricatures. While I am open to considering opportunities in other creative fields, these would be my preferences.
