presentazione del libro

Isabelle, amica del deserto

di Mirella Tenderini

Una vita purtroppo breve, quella di Isabelle Eschmadi, sul crinale tra XIX e XX secolo. Eppure grinta di audaci esperienze: la parabola di una giovane donna nata a Ginevra da genitori russi, viaggiatrice, scrittrice e giornalista inespugnabile, innamorata del Magreb e dell'Iran, che a lungo viaggio attraverso il Nord Africa, travolta da conflitti arabo per potersi addentrare in territori inesplorati e visitati da europei. Fino a morire annegata a soli 27 anni nel 1934.
