Showcase description

Dear sir/madam I am an art director. I was born in 1973 I have 5 years degree in design and communication at the University Politecnico of Milan, where I studied multimedial communication, marketing, branding and moving image design.I studied comics and illustration in a school of art too. I spent six month in 2001/02 at Ravensbourne college of Design and Communication in London as exchange student attending the moving image design course. I worked as art director in an advertising and communication agency in Milan since 2004 but I'm freelancer now. I work from the idea to the finished artwork, so that I have experience in print production processes. I use adobe creative included premiere and after effects for video editing. My other work experience includes two years at Comunicazioni & Associati in Milan, a communication and advertising agency, as editorial staff for sparetime magazines and three years at Brianza pubblicità (advertising agency) as graphic and then art director. enrico gazziero email: egazziero@hotmail.com mobile: +39 3393422710 web: www.egazzieroart.com
