Showcase description

Lisa Massei works as graphic designer and visual artist for more than ten years now. She obtained a degree in ?Industrial and organizational psychology? at the University of Florence. She also practiced at the Scuola libera del nudo, at the Academy of fine arts of Florence. Right now, she is training as art-counselor at the Aspic of Rome. Her aim is to join her proficiencies in psychology, communication and art together, in order to hone and widen her skills as trainer and teacher. She loves art. She believes it is a fundamental aspect of human communication. She practiced it mostly through drawing, painting, photography and literature.
