Showcase description

I am a curious, creative and polyvalent designer. Hardworking, I work well both by myself or in a team. While I am passionate about Womenswear I have an innate ability to apply my work to all types of design projects. I have a natural inclination for embroidery, experimenting with a wide selection of materials and techniques, creating individual effects, details and artistic applications that can be applied to both prêt à porter and haute couture. 2010 PROFESSIONAL SPECIALISATION COURSE at the Istituti Callegari Treviso in Pattern maker (modellista) and Garment makers (confezione) 2009 DEGREE IN FASHION DESIGN, UNIVERSITY IUAV BASED IN VENICE, ITALY. The Fashion Design degree course covers all practical and theoretical aspects of the Fashion process: How to build a fashion collection from initial artistic concepts: sketchbook research, the manufacture of clothes, ( both machining and handmade), photo reportage of the collection, application of marketing and advertising for fashion (look books, press releases, video presentation..), pattern cutting, moulage ,illustration, History of fashion ,the semantics and sociology of fashion. School leaving examination: 103/110
