Showcase description

Roberto Santangelo is an artist from Messina, he grew up in Sicily and since he was a child he paints on canvas under the guide of his father, a well-known artist in Italy. During the last years after a long period dedicated to the abstractism, inspired by the japanese culture and the geishe, he decided to principally paint young japanese woman portraits: the art inside art. His works are exhibited in private and public collections in Italy, Russia and Japan. WEB SITE: www.robertosantangelo.com
