Showcase description

Pamela Sartor, Graphics / Designer Montebelluna (TV-Italy). After I graduated in 2005 in Conservation of Cultural Heritage at the University Ca 'Foscari of Venice, I attended a course on the ESF "Footwear Design". Since 2006, I embarked on the road of the design of sports footwear and graphics in general, working for both studies for companies in the sector, for Italian and foreign clients ... I have also worked as a freelancer on projects of furniture design, graphic design, video footage and press office service at sports clubs. On-time delivery and attention to detail have always marked my projects, I am able to work independently and ready comparison of group work. Currently they are actively looking for a new job opportunity that allows me to take full advantage of my expertise in the field and my creativity.
