Showcase description

Nunphotography is an ongoing project of Francesco Mazza, a freelance photographer. The meeting between the photographer and his interlocutors is a process of transformation through dialogue and mutual sharing. It is the representation of the beauty and uniqueness of physical and emotional that he captures in his subjects, the possibility of inner growth through continuous game of mirroring. The goal goes further and takes the opportunity to look beyond the mere appearance for a comparison on par with the uniqueness of the presence of the subjects, bearers of truth and confirmations.
