

Andrea Lorenzo Bellini

Junior Copy

Location: Italy > Lombardia > Cremona

Years of Experience: 5

Employment Search: Si

Internships Available: Si

Showcase description

I've studied in IULM University and now I'm looking for a job or an internship to enhance my experiences and access to world of work. I would like to apply to your offer internship because I believe that would be a great opportunity to improve myself. I've already been in London for 3 months and would be outstanding live again in London. I've known your opportunity through the newsletter of IULM University. I've worked at The British International School in Stamford Brook, London where I improved my level of english, but also my skills to work in multicultural teams. I've specifically studied Communication, media and advertising, such as student I've always taken any opportunity to develop my communication and marketing knowledges. My role in The British International School was Junior marketing manager. Our team's responsibilities were to run advertising campaigns to promote The BIS in abroad market such as Russia, China. I've attached my resume which highlights the following achievements from both education and experience: I was awarded with Bachelor's degree in Communication sciences at the IULM University in Milan. I have done an Erasmus Placement at The British International School in London. I am a highly motivated, dynamic and ambitious and I have demonstrated to work effectively in the multicultural teams. I am willing to learn and to achieve results.
