Showcase description

I'm good at making people cry, through laughing and through cute thoughts. I've been writing for 4 years about chocolate cookies and dreams made out of sugar stars, energy drinks, blenders and other stuff. I'm fun. GOOD STUFF: Digital enthusiast // long live the internet Music lover // I sing and I'm a songwriter Series addict // I love hanging out with real people, but Bryan Cranston is God Post-it kind of blogger // I say a lot of things using very few words I like photography // but I use Instagram Rugby lover // I used to play, now I just watch Passion for fashion and good looking people // but not for fashion bloggers Magazines eater // I buy a lot of mags but I look at the pictures mostly Poser // I prefer photogenic Digital Communication, Social Media Marketing, Copywriting, Digital Strategy, Creative content creation.
