Showcase description

My name is Stefano Iori and I'm a graphic designer since 2003. October 2004/January 2012 - Circleline Marketing & Communication srl - Milan. I?ve been chosen for the adv department team. I managed layouts from the raw image to the printing advert. I did photo editing, photoshooting of new products, I produced advertising pages, invitations, panels for Acer, Gateway and Packard bell for the whole world. For the last five years I also managed the whole flow work in addition to my graphic role. Specifically adverts booking, calendar of issue dates about campaigns on italian and the rest of the world?s newspapers and magazines. This role made me continuously interacted with customers, editors and printers. Thanks to this I got better skills like problem solving and I improved my english. Predisposition for team work, relational and artistic skills, I'm problem solving oriented. Passion for photography and music. I?ve been playing guitar for 14 years. Great flexibility and adaptability, determination, temperament, I?m a quick learner.
