Showcase description

Tehran , 1983. Illustrator/ animator. He began his studies at the Atelier of modern art " MAHA " in Iran . Then he moved to Italy , first to Rome and then to Milan , to get his specialization in graphic arts . He has participated as an Illustrator and animator in many festivals and exhibitions such as CORTOONS 2012 ( international festival of animated shorts ) , " extracontemporanea " , " week of Italian language in the world . " Also as an art director on various projects such as " Eurodynamics " - a multi cultural , multi-media European event for the "Life Long Learning Programme" of the E.U. He has created several animated videos including but not limited to, experimental ,advertising, music videos, or insertions in movies. such as animated ads for the film : " il pezzo mancante " of Giovanni Piperno(winner of the "selezione" award at the Turin Film Festival 2010) After a few years , He delves into the world of digital art , creating a series of Digital Illustrations in this format . After testing several supports and materials for prints , He chooses the plexiglass printed with acrylic ink , which gives it a relief effect .
