Showcase description

Nadircommunication video and photo production started working as a photographer and videomaker in 2007, straight after I graduated from the School of Cinematography in Milan, Italy. The company was founded in 2012 as a freelance company and the name of the founder is Loris Marinoni. The projects I have been involved in till now, include working on my own in some occasions and in groups in several others, i am responsible in pre-production processes, shooting and editing.
