Showcase description

I am a very open and communicative person and I use these strengths in my job, which has always been oriented in marketing and web marketing. I have a strong knowledge of web, content management systems (Joomla, Wordpress), HTML, CSS, SEO-SEM, and management of social pages. I am able to work as leader but also as part of a team. I have good organisation skills and I am operative and pragmatic. I consider myself as an inquiring person regarding the job and I am always ready to take a challenge.
