Showcase description

Korai - Territory, Culture and Development is a cultural and creative enterprise that collects a team of young and enthusiast illustrators and graphic designers. By making use of different techniques, they create original and exclusive images for illustrated stories, portraits, gadgets, merchandising objects, logos and corporate identity for businesses, graphics for web sites and graphic tools for the promotion of cultural heritage. We collaborate with publishing houses, companies and communication agencies and also caters to private and amateurs looking for unique and personalised illustrations. Illustrations will be on Line on korai.it
