Showcase description

I did a course at Istituto Marangoni, Domus Academy and Accademia Del Lusso, I went on a freelance basis as like editing and stylist, specializing in the use of the Adobe package. At the same time in the food industry working as a PR consultant and social communications, providing social services update, graphics and organization of events. My experiences in the communications continue to grow for both events on the company, but are looking for an ongoing collaborations that can enhance and develop my professional role.
