

Boma Design

Industrial Designer

Location: Italy > Lombardia > Bergamo

Website: <http://www.boma.uno>

Years of Experience: >10

Employment Search: Si

Internships Available: No

Showcase description

Massimiliano Bova deals since 1997 the product concept, industrial design and 3D special effects for commercials and short films in CGI. His study focuses on the development, modeling and animation in the various sectors of the 3D previsualization: from the creation of subjects "Science-Fiction" mechanical animation, from architecture to interior design. The complementary activities ranging from sculpture to fantasy subjects until the architecture for the construction of plastic. Today his business is headquartered at POINT, the Pole of Research and Technology of Dalmine, which has expanded its interest in 3D printing by offering both the actual service that the modeling component of the product; still accompanied by architectural firms, design agencies, research centers and planning for the realization of concept, 3D animations and product visual.

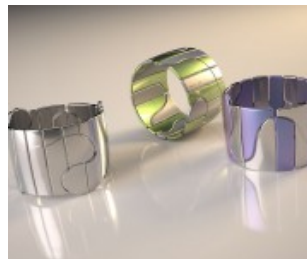

Technical Illustrations

3D Images

Industrial design

Boma Design

Industrial Designer

Furniture

