Showcase description

Hello, my name is Matthew Troncana are a student who attends the 4th year of the Golgi in Brescia graphics industry. I am very passionate about graphics and design, and is an area that I really like. In my life I have done so much work experiences that have helped me to grow, I did internships in Quesi all areas of graphics, starting from pre-press, printing and construction, thanks to this I have understood as to which direct me to my future and I chose pre press. Currently I follow some Facebook pages in the part of the communication and the graphics are very happy about that.
