Showcase description

Dear Company, my name is Nicoletta Di Francesca, I graduated in International Communication in July 2010, and also, I graduated in Public Communication, Business and Advertising Science, (Business and Advertising Communication Curriculum) in February 2013, with a Thesis titled: Unconventional Marketing Strategies: Viral Marketing and The Case: The sound of wine by Tasca d'Almerita. I worked as secretary of a medical practice and employed as receptionist at the Madonie Holidays srls company, where I worked like receptionist, I was taking care of the communication and marketing. I would like to submit my curriculum vitae to you, because I am sure that with you I will be able to improve the skills acquired during my study and work years. I therefore attach my curriculum vitae so that you can evaluate my candidacy and compare it with what your needs are. I'm a dynamic and creative person, I get ready for public relations and I'm able to work both alone and in team. I am reliable, precise, I have a distinct sense of duty and I am confident that I will be able to perform satisfactorily the tasks you will be assigned me during the internship period, learning fast and enthusiastically. I'm available for business trips. By trusting in having the opportunity of a direct job interview, I take the opportunity to give you my greetings. Nicoletta Di Francesca
