Showcase description

Hello everyone. My name is Valeria, and I don't know how to define myself in a few words. I am a 34 years old woman who has invented and reinvented herself more times than I know how to write. I attended the Academy of Fine Arts and I was at the same time a diploma in restoration, and I wanted the restoration to be my future. So it was not, and here is the first switch! I approached the graphics, I entered a graphic studio as everything to do, I learned to use the graphics programs working hard on photo and post production. Unfortunately the agency for which I worked closed..... according to switch! Only dreams do not live, and here I am catapulted into the world of clubs and nightlife, I become a professional bartender and this experience leads me to know thousands of people around Italy. But I am still not satisfied and I still do not feel realized. So... barman at night and Serigrafia by day, I approach this world, full of colors, inks, solvents and materials. Even this fantastic experience however is time to end. Today I continue to be a bartender at night and spend the rest of the day looking for the right graphic and work opportunity and that will make me say "This is the right way Valeria. Years of study and sacrifices are finally rewarded. "
