Showcase description

I graduated from Artistic De Nittis high school in Bari with a specialization in Graphic Design and then a degree in Art Direction at the European Institute of Design in Rome, as well as a master in Web Marketing, Social Media Marketing & Graphic Design. I achieved a good level of proficiency in written and oral English, also certified as b2 ESOL CERTIFICATE English for Speakers of Other Languages from the British Institute in Rome. I have a solid experience in the management of IT packages. I have had different experiences, in the private sector, such as creation of business cards and logos and management of a media partner for various commercial types and as an intern at the Pooya communication agency in Bari.
