Showcase description

If you're looking for a fast and inventive illustrator, with a personal and modern style, I'm probably the one you're looking for. I'm a fine art student in Turin, and I'm studying in New technologies of art, but my passion for drawing and comic book is way more ancient. If you're interested in having a look at my more recent works, here's my Behance page! <https://www.behance.net/adonatolav25dd> If you would contact me, here's my mail: adonatolavitola@yahoo.it
