Showcase description

My name is Ludovica Marani. I'm 26, born and bred in Italy. I moved to London a couple of years ago, whilst completing my Master's degree in Philosophical Sciences presenting a thesis on the use of image within the cine-journalism field. I'm currently working in a college as an academic interviewer, though in my spare time I do illustrations, mainly for Italian magazines (1977, Piacere Magazine, Vulcano Statale, La Tigre di Carta, ...). My portfolio is available at the following address: <https://ludovicamarani.com/>
