Showcase description

e-mail:michele.lo@live.com tel: +39 340 0544477 My name is Michele Lomartire and I am passionate about graphics and communication. I am always informed about the new communication trends and rebrands of the moment. In my free time I mostly read communication books but also thrillers and fantasy books, I listen to music, play videogames and I love visiting exhibitions and museums. I have always studied Graphics since high school, completing my studies with a degree in Graphics and Publishing at the Academy of Fine Arts in Lecce. I'm a Graphic Designer whose activities range from logo design to branding but also from the creation of company presentations to Art director consulting. My work experience started 5 years ago at an IT company as a Graphic designer and later on I moved to a Digital Agency. I find the environment of communication agencies stimulating and for this reason I would like to work there again.
