Hi, my name's Carlo Amoroso, I'm 29 and I live in Milan. I'm a creative I work with images in communication by providing photo editing services, visual marketing and styling consultancy. I started my career in fashion as a menswear designer, I learnt knowledges and achieved skills by following the entire productive chain from product development, to promotion and sale. I have sales fair experiences in Italy and USA too. Here you have my website www.cucinacolori.photo a portfolio of Retouched photos, Visual Marketing and Styling examples. I often work on-set. My purpose is to to grow my professional figure as visual and stylist by collaborating on shootings and communication projects. I do consider an "Image" a living being that breathes, learns and grows as much as we do, it is constantly challenging and it's essential to face it.
