Showcase description

I've grown up drawing and drawing. Art and illustration have been part of my life for decade as hobbies and regardless the job I was doing, I've always tried to incorporate element of drawing in my work. I found it a very conveying way to communicate something. Recently I realized being an illustrator would be the optimal combination of drawing, communicate and, you know, pay bills. I've been experimenting styles and techniques but I've chosen to go traditional since I love the feeling of realness it gives to a piece.
