My name is Riccardo Fausto De Caro and I'm a 23-year-old comic books artist. I attended the three-year course of Comics at the "International School of Comics" in Rome, completing my studies and now I am attending a specialization course at the "School of Comics" in anatomy, digital coloring and screenwriting. My passion is the American market, and all the comics about it. They are also available for the realization of illustrations or story boards.
