Showcase description

Hi, I'm Alessandra. I've been passionate about writing ever since my first-grade teacher, Miriam, taught me how to write in block letters. My handwriting is terrible, but I'm good at putting thoughts into words, which comes in handy when I need to write an article, come up with a tagline for a company, or develop a social media strategy. I work in communication and journalism. In short, I prefer writing to speaking!
