Who I am: Hi, I'm Melanja, the founder of Balans Lab, a video production company based in Amsterdam. What I do: At Balans Lab, I help purpose-driven brands and creative professionals connect with their audience ? showing who they are, what they do, and why it matters. I also work as a video editor for fashion, retail, and NGO clients, creating content that inspires and engages. What I want to do: I'm looking to collaborate on projects that highlight creativity and innovation, telling stories that truly resonate and make an impact on audiences and people.
