Showcase description

STUDIO TRE srl, a multilingual agency providing support for companies since 1979. Consistency in terminology at all levels (in translations, interpreting and advertising material) lies at the heart of effectively communicating the image of your company. You can reach your business goals with the support of our experience in linguistic consultancy which spans more than three decades and our network of highly qualified, certified professionals who stay up-to-date on the latest IT technologies. You?ll find we?re a partner that is easy to work with and trust, a partner that provides prompt and accurate service, meets the deadlines agreed upon and maintains the very highest degree of confidentiality. We can help you come up with a custom project for internationalizing your company, to attain a high competitive standard on the global market.
